The Cord was found and painstakingly restored over the past year by Tom Occhiuzzo, a resident of West Hill. Mr. Occhiuzzo has a natural interest in cars as president of New Bedford Dodge Inc. This car was located in the Philadelphia area owned by a high school student who had done some extreme modifications to keep it running. The body had been brush painted red and the grill painted white. Parts from a variety of cars had been grafted and adapted to the exhaust system and the engine. In short, the restoration was a real challenge. Mr. Occhiuzzo, corresponding with Cord owners throughout the United States, acquired his parts one by one. What couldn't be bought had to be made. The body was stripped and painted, the chrome was stripped and rechromed. Now, in all respects, the car is like new in appearance and performance. The yellow body gleams. In the course of the restoration, Mr. Occhiuzzo contacted author Hugo Pfam who is a noted authority on antique classic cars. Mr. Pfam became so interested in 210 H.P. Lycoming V8 engine. The Cord featured several firsts. It is the first uni-body, first to have hidden headlamps in the fender, first to have the gear shift lever mounted on the steering column and first to have front wheel drive. The shift is a finger lever which allows a preselection of gears. The car can be proceeding in fourth gear and be shifted into low anticipating a light. The shift takes place when the clutch is depressed and released.

Those who don't remember the Cord will be impressed at its timeless class. The car was put together by a group of engineers who were not only advanced but also stole every new idea in sight. Production stopped after only 2 years so each car is one of a small select group. On the dash is a metal plate which states that Abe Jenkins, an Indianapolis car racing champion, had driven the car for over 100 miles and had approved its performance. Today she steps along beautifully at highway speed, easy steering and with a good ride. Everywhere she goes, heads turn in admiration.

SUMMER CONCERT

Five hundred and seventy cheering fans of the Regional Symphonic Band were on hand as the John Pandolfi conducted band bowed out the '72 season. The band was resplendent in white coats, the stage overflowed with flowers that were fittingly symbolic of the verbal bouquets thrown by the audience. The capacity crowd enjoyed a wonderful program of light music as they sipped champagne or lemonade in Hoyt Hall at Tabor Academy in Marion on Saturday night. Yellow and white marguerites decorated the tables and mixed glads, mums, carnations made a colorful stage setting. "Chuck" Ganzel chairmaned the affair which was one of the most successful as well as the most unique given by the Symphonic Band. The "Stars and Stripes

Jr., treasurer, acted as master of ceremonies. He outlined the bank's start on February 23, 1832, when 24 incorporators put together $12 in capital to start the bank. Today, over $99,090,000.00 in capital attests to the growth of the institution. He said that the new bank will be a 2-story building of 18,000 square feet. It will be of concrete of a limestone color. The main floor will have space for 10 tellers and 2 special tellers as well as office space for the 9 officers. The second floor will have work space as well as a rear office area. The bank will face south with its back to Route 6 just west of the Berdon Plaza. It will be landscaped with grass, shrubs and trees and will be one year in construction. Mr. Orrin B. Carpenter, former president of the bank, had the honor of turning the first spadeful of earth.

Following the ceremonies, invited guests joined bank officials at cocktails and buffet at the Fairhaven Boys' Club.

An Open Letter

OPEN LETTER TO MR PAUL ALVES,
CHAIRMAN MATT. SCHOOL COMMITTEE

I feel compelled to write to you concerning the School Committee meeting held at Old Hammondtown Tuesday, June 13, 1972. If I had not been present at this meeting, along with some 75 other voters, and not heard with my own ears what was said, I would not have believed any of it possible. After two days of deliberation I have come to the conclusion this is no longer just a disagreement between taxpayers and the School Committee over one action taken by said committee, i.e., the appointment of two full-time principals. It goes much deeper than that.

There is an old saying: "Actions speak louder than words". While paying lip-service to the true feelings of the town as stated to you by a well-representative group of voters; (2) petitions and letters and (3) your Selectmen who were speaking for the town, you continue to act as if none of these feelings has been made known to you.

At the beginning of this meeting, you stated that no decision on this matter could be taken until Mr. Marshall Ross, the third member of the committee, returned from a business trip. Approximately 3 hours later when a voter who has not been present at the previous meetings asked you if the decision was reversible, you then asked the superintendent to answer for you. He replied that the verbal appointment made by the committee on April 12 was legally binding. First, may I remind you that on 2 separate occasions you had previously stated that if the majority in the town wanted an assistant principal and a principal, the committee would certainly reconsider the decision. Secondly, may I remind you that I stated in a previous letter to you that the legal department at the Board of Education in Boston has told us that until a contract has been signed, the committee was not legally bound. Unfortunately we did not have this from Boston in writing. This will soon be rectified.

Something else disturbs me deeply. It is quite obvious to all those who attended that there is a growing rift between a small group of teachers at Center School and the balance of teachers at Center and Old Hammondtown. This past year this problem has grown much worse. Now, with the possibility of two separate principals how will you restore the unity and continuity to our school system?

This point and many others have been fully and unemotionally presented to you and yet you persist in ignoring the will of the majority because of a commitment to one.

I know the wording of this letter may be considered too strong - but I feel it is time to put diplomacy aside and speak honestly and truthfully. The School Committee, in my personal opinion, is morally, ethically and legally responsible to the town. They must truly represent those who elected them. They must carefully weigh each decision after making every effort to find out what the people they represent want. These decisions should be made by the committee alone, without any undue influence from the members of the administrative staff.

In closing I would like to say, the accusations made by two over-wrought teachers that we were out to destroy one of two people; that this matter has become a personality thing, were uncalled-for, unjustified and in very poor taste. At no time have I or any other voter put this on anything but an impersonal and businesslike basis. These two teachers spoke of our risking the loss of a good administrator. Why was this even mentioned and where did this idea come from? No one to my knowledge has ever suggested anyone leaving. We have only concerned ourselves with the job status and its implications. This I would feel is a matter of record. Copies of this letter have been sent to: Mr. Ross, Mrs. Perry, Miss Aurich, Mr. Moynihan, Dr. Kunces, David Haley and the Presto Press.

Most respectfully,

Jane E. Lees

Letters to the Editor

TO THE EDITOR

Mr. Bill Spark did indeed serve our community well. Some twenty years ago when I first attended Town Meetings, a profound, articulate voice expressing opinions of citizen responsibility came from the ranks of the Finance Committee. In those days we did get concerned about expenditures because we knew our tax burden would become intolerable. When Bill became Selectman after some twenty years of leadership continuity, Bill gave credit to the Mattapoisett Woman's Club for holding their first candidates' night as the contributing factor in his victory.

His qualities of dignity, humility and loyalty remain as an inspiration to all of us and a grateful community says, "Well done good and faithful servant".

Winifred I. Burnham

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Since the last annual Town Meeting the Water Pollution Abatement Committee has considered several alternative solutions to Mattapoisett's sewer problem that would cost considerably less than the $5 1/2 million proposal previously presented. The Town's share of the $5 1/2 million proposal would have been $2.2 million. Proposals since developed by the Committee have an estimated cost nearer one million dollars and although such an expenditure would not constitute a town-wide sewer system, it would solve our sewer problems for some years to come.

On June 13 the Committee and other Town officials met with Richard F. Greeley, Chief of Construction Grants for the Water Pollution Control Division of the Department of Natural Resources. The main points of Mr. Greeley's talk can be summarized as follows:

1. Septic tanks are suitable for rural areas only, and any program to build or rebuild them in Mattapoisett would be a waste of time and money because the problem would be solved only temporarily, if at all.

2. Any sewer plan must be approved by Water Pollution Control. Some of the alternatives presented by the Committee might be approved, but before they are approved or disapproved a comprehensive engineering plan, complete with estimated costs, must be submitted to Water Pollution Control. Therefore, Mr. Greeley would not comment on the approval or disapproval of the alternatives presented. He did say, however, that none of the five alternatives would qualify for State and Federal funding.

3. The first aim of the Town should be to eliminate existing pollution of the harbor and streams. Therefore, the Town should undertake a less ambitious project and service only those areas with an immediate need. In this way the Town's share of the costs could be reduced to an amount the Town can afford.

4. The Faye, Spofford & Thorndike plan is a good plan and allows the Town to take maximum advantage of State and Federal aid.

5. Together the State and Federal government will probably pay 90% of the cost of the line to Fairhaven. The Town's share of this cost could be as low as $300,000.

6. The cost of one smaller pumping station, and the collecting sewers would be paid entirely by the Town unless other sources of aid could be obtained.

7. The Town's share of the total cost must be "reasonable". Reasonable is undefined but would be considerably less than $2.2 million.

8. It will be cheaper for the Town to build a portion of a full sized sewer system with aid than to build a smaller system without aid.

The Committee had previously been led to believe that initial construction would have to include most of the designed Phase I. The significance of Mr. Greeley's statements is that the Town can begin with a basic system which eliminates existing pollution and is within the economic reach of the Town.

The lecturer's march prize went to Mr. Roderick. The program was a celebration of all the members' birthdays. There were 4 tables decorated with a birthday cake on each. Each table presented an interesting part of the lecturer's program. Ollie Gifford and Kathy Buckley came dressed appropriately with buckets, mops, etc, and did a floor cleaning job for January, February and March. For April, May and June Albert Alvernaz rendered solos accompanying himself on the guitar. Ruby Barber held a peanut hunt with Susan LaFleur and Albert Alvernaz winning the prizes. Also, Mr. Alvernaz received the prize for his part of the program. The prize for the best decorated table went to July, August and September, decorated by Mrs. Etta Kellish. William Smith gave a talk on the lovely articles he and Mrs. Smith have brought back from their many trips. For October, November and December Mark Harris entertained by reading excerpts from Shakespeare's work. This table was decorated by Marguerite Vaughan. All tables were appro-

Three Marion graduates of Old Rochester Regional High School have been awarded this year's annual scholarships by the Sippican Woman's Club. WEEKS MEETS WITH MATT. GROUP

Former State Senator William Weeks of Cohasset, a candidate for the Republican nomination for Representative in Congress for the 12th Congressional District, was a special guest of the Mattapoisett Republican Town Committee, at the Point Connett home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Dunn. In his informal address, Weeks said "I spent six tough years in the State Senate representing and working hard for many of the people in this Congressional District. Now, I'd like to go to work in Congress where the power and the means actually lie, to do more for this District with the money we've been pumping into Washington year after year." Weeks further declared that he feels there is too little emphasis on
